Bear,

I will mention it to Mr. Plunkett. I have not yet been retained as his counsel, but I expect I will be soon after he returns to Ireland next week.

Best,
Dan

Dear Dan,

Ms. Plunkett's parents sent me a handwritten letter direct from Ireland, which contained another letter from them addressed to Mr. Schwern trying to persuade him to dismiss his lawsuit. I understand the depth of their grief, but to the extent that you are aligned with their legal interests, you may wish to let them know that I cannot have them doing an end-run around counsel and trying to communicate directly with my client. And I don't feel comfortable forwarding mail like that without you being included in the loop. Thank you.
